ANSWERS

Monday:

A pronoun is a word that takes the place of a noun. Examples: he, she, it, they, someone, who. Pronouns can do all of the things that nouns can do. They can be subjects, direct objects, indirect objects, object of the preposition, and more.

Match the following:

Relative
pronoun

The cat with the very long whiskers is mine.

Personal pronoun

Paulo, who had been training for months, finished first in the race.

Possessive
pronoun

Suddenly, she realized she had left the whole project at home.

Alexa thinks that she has underlined the relative pronoun in the sentence below.

My neighbour, whose daughter is a professional dancer, travels to different dance competitions with her daughter.

Is she correct? Explain why.

Alexa is not correct because she has underlined the possessive determiner 'her'. She should have underlined 'whose' as it's referring to the neighbour.
