

Friday 17th April

Today I would like you to sketch what you can see outside from any window in your home. Sketch in pencil and then give your picture lots of colour. Once your picture is completed write lots of descriptive words and phrases around your picture to describe what you can see.

