Today I would like you to choose an animal from the Longleat Safari video (part 3) and write an information leaflet.

Remember to include;

- Subheadings (diet, habitat, features).
- A catchy bold title.
- Pictures (you could label the body parts).
- Did you boxes and key facts.

	Topic title covers the whole subject.		Non-chronological reports use factual language .
	Brief introduction paragraph gives who/what/where overview.		Present tense verbs (unless it is a historical report, then it would be past tense).
	The information is organised into paragraphs .		Technical language may be explained in a glossary.
	Each category has a sub-heading .		Third person makes it impersonal.
	Some information may be in fact boxes or bullet-point lists.		Non-chronological reports have a formal tone .
	Extra details support the main points.		General language , not particular examples.
