

Writing Challenge

Bugs, Beasts and Biscuits

With Martyn Harvey

Theme: Fauna

Deadline: Friday 12th June

Having listened to fantastic poetry every day this week, your challenge is to write your own!

The theme is 'fauna', which means animal. The poems Martyn has given us this week are all based on this theme to help you develop your own; yours could be a creature great or small. So, where it is safe for you to do so, get those wellies back on and explore those dark crevices where others may not dare and consider the lives of the fauna you find hidden within.

There is no minimum or maximum length for your poem, but Martyn and I will be looking out for creativity, language choices and one which makes us laugh!

You can send your entries to Mr McAuley via his email address below where he and Martyn will be sure to read.

Martyn and I wish you the very best of luck!
