IALT: use homophones

A homophone is a word which sounds the same but is spelt differently.

Circle the correct homophone.

- 1 I can't believe you were/where up at midnight!
2. Where/were are we going?
3. I want to bye/buy that!
4. I am very/vary tired.
5. She put it over their/there
6. I find edition/addition really difficult.
7. He left it by/bye the step.
8. They're/Their coming over later.
9. I need to practice/practise my guitar.
10. We have bean/been to the beech/beach
11. I saw a deer/dear when I picked a flower/flour
12. I was able to break/brake it with my bear/bare hands.

Correct the homophone mistakes in this paragraph.

Won fine day when the sun was shining weigh up in the sky, a pair of hairs came hopping by. Watching them from behind a fur tree was a great, big bare. He had been keeping an I on them for quite some time. He suddenly charged towards the hairs but they were two fast to him and managed to escape into a near bye burrow.
