Tuesday 9th June

Recap some of the language that you used to describe your animal/creature from your poem.

Today's task will involve you writing a postcard to a friend or relative explaining the excitement and drama of you discovering this new animal/creature.

Explain how you discovered it?

Where you was?

What were yours and Rex's reactions?

Remember to consider the following skills:

Informal language (colloquial language)

Descriptive language choices

Range of sentences

Emotive language

The reader needs to feel your excitement when reading the postcard!

You can design your postcard how you like!
