Task 1. Quick fire comprehension - answer the questions about the text below:

1. How can you become the finest wizard in the land?
2. Does 'budding' mean you are becoming good or something or you are old?
3. Anyone can go to the School of Wizardry. True or False. Why?
4. Which phrase in the text means the same as 'latest'?
5. Which two lessons will make you better at casting spells?
6. Find and copy 4 words that show you this school is great and makes you want to go.
7. Why might the school have been rated 'super-terrific'?
8. Why might you be the envy of your friends (jealous of you) if you go to this school?

Task 2:

Wizard words

★ Let's have some fun with words. To cast a spell, you need wizard words. Take a look at these:

'Explode-ium' 'Farm-ius' 'Shade-iorum' 'Pen-iosa' 'Sprint-lorus'

These are everyday words turned into wizard words by adding a 'spell' ending. You say the endings like this:

How it is spelt:

-ium
-ius
-iorum
-iosa
-lorus

How you say it:

ee-um
ee-us ee-or-um ee-oh-sa
law-us

So, for Explode-ium, you would say Explode-ee-um. Have a go at saying the wizard words now:

'Explode-ium' 'Farm-ius' 'Shade-iorum' 'Pen-iosa' 'Sprint-lorus'

Challenge:

- Choose an everyday word from Group 1
- Match your word with an ending from Group 2
- Write them down and say your new words aloud

Group 1			Group2
explore	read		-ium
match	care		-lorus
pat	exceed		-iosa
lamp	coat		-iorum
board	zip		-ius

Now write some spells!

String THREE wizard words together and don't forget to separate them with a comma to make a list. This creates your spell. Now practise saying your spells aloud.

Always say the third word the loudest, so end with an exclamation mark to show this.

For example: Farm-ius, Shade-iorum, EXPLODE-IUM!

Be creative...

If you have something at home that can be your magical wand, perform some drama when you are saying these spells!

What will the spell do?
