

Friday 26th June 2020

I am learning to spell words by changing the suffix

Read the passage below - find the route words that need the suffix to change for the sentence to make sense. - ent = ence, ency

ant = ance, ancy

Andrew ran along the beach, full of confident. He was not sure how much distant he had covered. His complacent would soon have dire consequences.

It was not long before his absent was noticed. His repeated truant had increased in frequent. The tide came in rapidly. It overtook him and soon he had no choice but to swim as the cliffs hemmed him in. His lack of buoyant now had grave significant. Fortunately, a dog walker saw him from the coast and raised the alarm to call for assistant.

The rescue helicopter flew towards him with urgent and was soon overhead. It and plucked Andrew out of the water. He was then taken to hospital. He now knew the cost of his ignorant and hoped for lenient when he returned home to face the consequents.