Frankie and Goblin's!

In the story, we have discovered the wonderful worlds of Goblin's and one thing for sure is that they love their food! Here was what was served at the party:

There were pinecone truffles, sweet sap sorbets, nettle fritters and the finest pollen-puddings. In the centre was an enormous cake covered in long-grass icing and, on the top, over a hundred candles burned brightly.

Task: Design a menu for another goblin party - it could be a Christmas party, anniversary party or any celebration you can think of!

Challenge - Can you design your party menu for a certain type of goblin and think carefully about what they would eat? (e.g. would a Cave Goblin eat something different to a Fire Goblin?)

Have fun with this! The menu can be as whacky or formal as you like! Be gruesome with some of your food descriptions:

E.G. Starter

Toad's delight - a rich, creamy sauce of toad's saliva drizzled over a cherry bakewell. Mmm - Yum Yum!

Remember: 'Starters', 'Mains' and 'Desserts'!
