

Dear Parents and Carers,

My thanks to those parents who have already given their ideas for school improvement via the link emailed at the start of this term. For those still wanting to complete it, here is the link once again:

<http://app.keysurvey.co.uk/f/1135173/1746/>

As I mentioned in the original email, if there is a particular issue or concern that you have, this feedback form is not the appropriate way to address it. We respectfully request that you make contact with a relevant member of staff so that they can help you appropriately to find resolution or reassurance.

We have been working recently as a staff team and with the children on how Chilton’s values could be renewed to more accurately embody the school culture and ethos as we continue to move forward. We feel that our current values are so firmly embedded in our school culture now that they have become “givens” rather than values. We have used our values as ‘learning powers’ over the last two years and both the children and staff feel that our seven values as they stand are more to do with how to be a great learner than our school as a team and community.

So far, the children and staff have come up with ideas such as: determination, resilience, courage, respect, pride, equality and fairness. The children have also mentioned that they would like to keep diversity as a value. I would very much like to have input and advice from parents on this. I have included a form which can be returned to school with your ideas (right at the end of the letter), or if you would prefer, please email me directly. We would like four values to reflect the whole school community. Any responses are gratefully received.

Something that is important to all of us at Chilton is that sense of community. We are a local school serving and supporting local families. I know that many of our families have been affected by the awful tragedy in Ramsgate last Sunday evening. Members of our staff are too. Our love and condolences go to everyone affected.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Kate Law

Head of School

Any donation, no matter how small is gratefully received and will be forwarded to those in need in these awful circumstances.

Welcome to Mrs Hughes – our new Senco:

My name is Mrs Emily Hughes and I am extremely happy to be joining the Viking Trust team as the Special Educational Needs Coordinator.

Prior to joining the Viking Trust, I have 20 years experience in working in a number of London primary schools both in the role as a class teacher and as a SENCO. I am passionate about special educational needs and for the past seven years I have coordinated SEND provision at a large primary school, which was part of a federation of three outstanding schools in South East London.

As a parent of two children I know how vital working in partnership with parents really is, in order for children to find school a positive and rewarding experience. So please do not hesitate to get in touch if you have any questions, or require help or support with your child's learning and school life.

To request a meeting please leave a message with the school office or contact me through email on emily.hughes@vikingacademytrust.com. I will also be available some mornings and afternoon on the school gate.

I am very much looking forward to meeting and working with you.

Emily Hughes

Other Messages for Term 6:

Open Evening

Just another reminder that the school's annual open evening is being held on Thursday 6th July from 6:00 until 7:30pm. The children's learning from across the year will be on display and the evening is also an opportunity to find out about the next academic year and meet new teachers.

Mr McAuley (new Year 6 teacher for Ultramarine class) is unable to attend the evening due to a prior commitment in London but he will be in school for the whole day on the 6th.

Mr Abel also can't attend on the 6th but will be in school all day on the 3rd July and then every day from 13th July to the end of term.

Mr Miller will be with us from the 3rd July.

Chilton Art Project - reminder

After the beautiful work produced for the Rotary Art Competition, we would like to introduce our own termly art project. So often, children produce such amazing creations at home and we would like to be able to display some of this talent around the school.

The Term 6 Art Competition is called "Shades of Blue" (in line with our new team names!)

The art-work can take on any shape or form – it is entirely up to the children. It is, of course, optional and voluntary but we welcome any work to be completed and brought in to school and placed on the stage in the school hall on the morning of Friday 7th July. We will then display it around the school for all to enjoy.

This information will be repeated in learning letters from next week!

Parent Meet with SLT

This is booked in for 12th July at 6pm in the small hall.

The agenda and information we will be sharing will be communicated next Friday (23rd June) and there will be an opportunity to email any topics you would like covered in advance. If you are unable to attend, please do email questions or suggestions in advance also.

The leadership team and Mrs Hughes and Mrs Sutherland the Business Manager will be attending.

The Scholastic Book Fair will be back next week from Monday to Thursday. Books will be on sale outside of the Year 6 classrooms before and after school.
