Bookings are open until Friday 16th October. After this, we will send out invitations via email to the meeting. When it is time for the meeting, you will need to click the link in the invite and hopefully should be able to connect to a teacher! Obviously if we have technical difficulties, we will resort to a phone call instead. If you do not make an appointment for a virtual meeting, teachers will make arrangements to phone to discuss your child's progress instead. If you have any problems making an appointment or have any queries, please do contact our office staff!

Best wishes

 - Mrs Kate Law, Head of School

ROAD CROSSING PATROL AND ROAD MARKINGS

Unfortunately, some parents have begun to make the roads and pavements in Chilton Lane unsafe with their car parking.

Please do not park on the yellow zig zags markings around the school entrances on Chilton Lane. Doing so makes the road unsafe to cross.

Please also do not park on pavements.
Children are trying to get to school safely.

Please take responsibility for your actions and keep Chilton Lane safe.

House Points....

We have had our House Point collection up and running for two weeks now.

Here are the current standings:

Romans	2438
Normans	2002
Vikings	2575
Saxons	2159

THE GOOD NEWS SECTION!
