Dear Parents/Carers,

I hope this letter finds you all safe and well and that the children are beginning to become accustomed to their remote learning.

Reading is a hugely important part of your child's education. We recognise that access to age appropriate reading materials will be a challenge for families during lockdown. Below I have compiled a list of websites, where you can access free online reading materials at the children's level, in order to ensure your children can continue their reading journey.

<https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/find-a-book/library-page/>

This website is free to join. Their reading books use the same coloured bands as we use in school. They have around 10 books in each band and update them regularly.

<https://www.getepic.com/>

This has free 30 day access for parents currently and has 100's of books. It is American so some words/spellings may vary slightly from what the children are used to. However, there are lots of books on the website where this is not an issue.

<https://www.kent.gov.uk/leisure-and-community/libraries/ebooks-eaudiobooks-emagazines-ewspapers>

Here you can join your local library virtually. You can then 'borrow' e books.

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/books-and-reading/have-some-fun/storybooks-and-games/>

Here you can access some free readers as well as videos of the stories being read.

<https://www.uniteforliteracy.com/>

Again, an American website, but full of free online books.

<http://en.childrenslibrary.org/>

This website has books in a variety of languages, but there are plenty written in English for the children to access.

<https://schoolreadinglist.co.uk/resources/great-value-free-ebooks-for-the-lockdown-period/>

This website offers links to free e books you can download to your tablet at home.

We hope you find this information useful. If you have any questions regarding reading at home, please do not hesitate to contact myself, or your child's teacher.

Yours Sincerely,

Mrs Cheshire

(Assistant Head)
