Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope that you have all enjoyed half-term. Term 4 begins on Monday. We still await a firm indication of re-opening which should be coming on Monday evening but I still expect the 8th March to be the key date. We have therefore planned for the continuation of our remote learning and in school provision for the first two weeks of term. There have been some alterations to the lesson timetables as shown below:

9.00	Year 1 English	Year 2 English	Year 5 English
9.30	Year 3 English	Year 4 English	Year 6 English
9.45	Reception English
10.30	Year 1 Maths	Year 2 Maths
11.00	Reception Maths	Year 3 Maths	Year 4 Maths
11.30	Year 5 Maths	Year 6 Maths
1.15	Year 4 Topic
1.30	Reception Topic	Year 1 Topic	Year 2 Topic
1.45	Year 6 Topic
2.00	Year 3 Topic	Year 5 Topic

This timetable will run from Monday to Thursday. On Friday mornings, teachers will provide activities for children to complete through Teams at home but there will not be ‘live’ lessons. This is because all teachers will be back in school and will be taking their planning and preparation time on a Friday morning. We are also aiming to add some variety for children with their home-learning on a Friday and also to reduce screen-time. On a Friday afternoon, the PE team will continue to provide sporting activities to complete at home.

Our provision for Key Worker and vulnerable children resumes on Monday with children back in class bubbles with their teachers and teaching assistants. The school day will end at 3:00 for all year groups. Breakfast Club will run from 7:30 each day and afterschool club will be provided until 5:30. The children will all have PE on a Friday afternoon so please could they come to school in PE kits on Fridays. Full school uniform should be worn apart from this.

I emphasise that these are the arrangements for the first two weeks of term and once we know more, I will be in touch again. We are looking forward to starting our learning and seeing you once again and in the meantime, if there is anything we can help with, please get in touch.

Best wishes

Mrs Kate Law - Head of School
