

Children's Author

ZOE ANTONIADES

Hello!

My name is Zoe Antoniadis and I'm a children's author. The Margate Bookie literature festival has invited me to Chilton Primary to talk about stories, and my amazing new book series, Cally and Jimmy. At the end of school, there'll be an opportunity to purchase a book for your child and maybe even have it signed!

The school will be stocking some copies in their school library, so please don't feel pressured to purchase one. If you'd like to get a book, please see below for instructions on how to order.

Thank you!

HOW TO ORDER BOOKS

1

Order online with local bookshop Tales on Moon Lane, in Ramsgate, before Tuesday 9th November. Visit <https://www.moonlaneramsgate.com/zoeantoniades>

(Alternatively, there will be some books to buy on the day, but these will be sold at RRP, are limited and could run out.)

2

Pick up your books from the stall after school on Friday 12th November.

PS: Preordering gets you £1 off each book you buy, and 10% of all sales are donated to Chilton to help restock the library and book corners. It's win-win!
