Friday 26th May

Dear Families,

As we come into term 6, we need to begin to take small steps to prepare the children for their transition into Year 1. The first thing we will be doing is beginning to fully use the behaviour system that the rest of the school use.

The children currently use a warning and consequence system of yellow and red cards and we will now teach them in more depth about those systems. Every child begins each week with 25 points (5 points per day). Points are lost for poor behaviour choices after the same system of warnings that they are already used to. A yellow card will now lose one point and a red card loses two. Every time one of these cards is placed on a child's table, however, it can be removed again if the child changes the behaviour and points are thereby kept.

If a card remains in place at the end of a session, there is a system of consequence whereby part of busy time or lunchtimes will be missed. Teachers will keep you informed of any points lost through the system.

The behaviour system is focused on recognising and rewarding children always doing the right thing. For children keeping all 25 points, there are cumulative rewards. A text will also be sent each Friday if children have kept all of their points. There are also class rewards for points kept which translate to 'Chilton cheques' which can be saved and spent on whole class reward activities (ice-cream or movie afternoons etc.)

The full behaviour policy is available here. If you have any questions regarding these changes for your child, please do not hesitate to contact Mrs Cheshire on hannah.cheshire@chiltonprimary.co.uk.

Yours Sincerely

Mrs H Cheshire

Deputy Head
